

PRIVACY POLICY

Attorneys have been and continue to be bound by professional standards of confidentiality. These standards are more stringent than those required under the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act which became effective November 12, 1999. Therefore, we have always protected your rights to privacy.

In the course of providing our clients with legal services, we receive significant personal financial information about you. If you are a client of Peter L. Fels PC, you should know that all information we receive from you is held in confidence and is not released to people outside the firm except as agreed by you or required under applicable law.

We retain records relating to professional services that we provide, so that we are better able to assist you with your legal needs and, in some cases, to comply with professional guidelines. In order to guard your nonpublic personal information, we maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with our professional standards.

Please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any questions regarding our privacy policy.